

The Michigan Redistricting Collaborative presents:

Draw the Line Michigan

A forum about the way political district lines are drawn

Monday, March 14, 2011

Vis Ta Tech Center at Schoolcraft College

18600 Haggerty Rd, Livonia, MI 48152

10:00 am to 3:00 pm

Michigan's political districts will be redrawn this year. The way district lines are drawn can keep our communities together or split them apart. This event provides information and insights on redistricting laws, the process in Michigan, and opportunities to dialogue about how to make redistricting more responsive to citizen, rather than political, interests.

Registration: Free but pre-registration by March 7th is required. Register online at <http://fs16.formsite.com/lwvmi/RedistrictingForum/index.html> or by mail.

Confirmed Panelists: Keesha Gaskins, Senior Counsel, Brennan Center for Justice; Virginia Martinez, Legislative Staff Attorney, Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund; Dr. Michael McDonald, Asst. Professor of Government & Politics, George Mason University; Kurt Metzger, Director, Data Driven Detroit.

The Michigan Redistricting Collaborative, a coalition of non-profits, believes that redistricting must be transparent and open, with more public involvement. See www.drawthelinemichigan.org for information about the Collaborative. For forum information, contact Kris Zawisza or Analise Johnson, League of Women Voters of Michigan, redistricting@lwvmi.org, or 517-484-5383.
