

Michigan Environmental Update
with
Senator Sam Singh

Friday September 22, 1 P.M.

The Environmental Advocacy Network of the Michigan League of Women Voters is pleased to invite you to hear Senator Sam Singh present an overview of environmental legislation currently being considered by our legislature, particularly that pertaining to promoting clean energy in Michigan. Senator Singh has long been concerned with protecting Michigan's bountiful natural resources.

Register for this event to receive a link to the presentation and the recording that will be made.

